EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Kurt Rauschenbach on December 4, 2007.

The application has been amended as follows:

- Claim 30, line 1, replace "29" with "23".
- Claim 31, line 1, replace "29" with "23".

Claim 34 (Currently Amended) A system comprising:

a very long instruction word configurable multiple processor, distributed memory architecture; and a compiler for mapping a plurality of tasks and data onto the very long instruction word configurable multiple processor, distributed memory architecture, the compiler comprising:

- a) means for describing a task-level network of behaviors that defines an embedded system, each of the task-level network of behaviors being interrelated through control and data flow dependencies;
- b) means for predicting a schedule of tasks for the task-level network;
- c) means for allocating the plurality of tasks and data to at least two processors and to at least two distributed memories in the very long instruction word configurable multiple processor, distributed memory architecture, respectively, in response to the predicted schedule of tasks to enable parallel execution of very long instruction word operations; and
- d) means for producing machine executable code for the very long instruction word configurable multiple processor, distributed memory hardware architecture based at least in part on the means for allocating the plurality of tasks and data.

- Claim 36, line 1, replace “compiler” with “system”
